Lead behaviour, culture and pupil wellbeing

- Gain a prestigious, government-backed qualification and make progress in your career
- Develop expertise and leadership in the art, craft and science of classroom culture, behaviour and wellbeing
- Learn flexibly around your job with a blend of online learning, virtual sessions and local face to face workshops
- Ideal for those who have, or are aspiring to have, responsibility to lead pupil behaviour and culture and support others in these areas

Benefits for you

Our NPQLBC qualification is aligned to the Chartered College of Teaching's Chartered Teacher and Chartered Leader Status, providing a springboard for your next steps.

Benefits for Participants

- Develop expertise and leadership in the art, craft and science of classroom culture, behaviour and wellbeing
- A blended learning experience which fits around your role where you learn and discuss key content online – no more sitting listening to presentations for hours
- Local virtual and face to face sessions that focus on real problem-solving, creating understanding, connecting with your peers and gaining depth of knowledge
- Ongoing preparation to give you confidence to pass the final assessment
- Facilitation and support from serving school leaders in excellent schools and delivery at local venues

The course

A 12-month blend of flexible online learning, online discussion, virtual workshops and face to face workshops. This is followed by an 8-day assessment window where you will complete a 1500-word case study assessment to demonstrate your understanding of real leadership and change.

The course covers all of the core content in the government's Framework for this qualification and this is aligned with core themes around: effective communication, creating change, working with teams, managing yourself. Key areas include:

- Understanding how to support effective teaching and great classroom culture and behaviour
- Supporting wider school culture, pupil wellbeing and complex behavioural needs
- Professionally developing others, creating change and supporting school culture

Benefits for your school or trust

- A skilful and research-informed professional who can lead the improvement of pupil wellbeing, create calm classrooms, great pupil behaviour and a warm whole-school culture
- Practical capability to get on with the job of developing others with the skills to lead with people and teams, creating change and impact
- The ability to review and evaluate practice in order to bring about change and get the best outcomes for young people and staff within the organisation

Suitability

Ideal for those have, or are aspiring to have, responsibility to lead pupil behaviour and culture and support others in these areas.

“

The course had a huge impact on my professional life this year [...] it reignited my desire to learn in an academic sense”

“

One of the most powerful things about it has been that I feel empowered, by knowledge, by understanding and to enact change [...] crucially, ensuring a shared purpose with a strong focus on student outcomes must be central, to provide colleagues with the same empowered feeling”

Booking information

Cost

The course fee is £889
